

CV Dr Agostino Miozzo

Dr Agostino Miozzo has been Director General of the Voluntary Service and International Relations Office of the Italian Civil Protection Department since 2002. Responsible, among other tasks, of emergency operations carried out abroad. In particular he has coordinated many relief programs in Sri Lanka, following the 2004 Tsunami, in South Sudan, IranBam, Indonesia, Algeria, Morocco, Ossetia-Beslan, Lebanon, and the United States-New Orleans.

He has had extensive experience in the international and humanitarian fields. He has worked with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs for almost 20 years, beginning as a Volunteer Doctor in Zimbabwe and Ethiopia. He was Coordinator of emergency relief operations organized by the General Directorate Development Cooperation from 1991 to 2001. During this period he was involved in emergency relief programs throughout the world, particularly in the following areas: the Balkans, Africa, the Middle East, America and Asia.

Dr Miozzo has written and contributed to several scientific publications and gives lectures at many Universities and Research Institutes in Italy as well as abroad.

In 2008 he was awarded a Gold Merit Medal for his contribution to the Public Health Service.

Dr Miozzo had an Honours Degree in Medicine at the University of Milano

